SHOALHAVEN STORIES

Anna Glynn

Paintings, video, writing & sound works

Contemporary Australian artist Anna Glynn has made the Shoalhaven her home for many years and during this time has been quietly observing and gathering stories – both her own and those from the community. In her Shoalhaven Stories series she expresses this rich collection of unusual and everyday events through painting, drawing, photography, sculpture, writing, sound and video.

Shoalhaven Stories is supported through funding from the Australian Government's Your Community Heritage Program. This recent funding provides an opportunity to have Glynn work with the Shoalhaven City Arts Centre and a small team to gather and record more stories, working also with digital media and creating an online accessible presence. Our thanks go to all who supported this project application.
